

No. 237
Date: 07.09.2011

NEW CHAMBER DESIGN FOR MT5+

In the near future you may notice that the shape of the eccentric chamber in the plug has been modified.

This new design improves the guide of the eccentric pin inside the chamber after key insertion.

No change has been made to the eccentric pin itself.

The production of the new plugs will start after consuming plugs that are in stock.

Please see illustrations of the current shape and the modified one.

